The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

REPORT ON THE STATISTICS OF MUNICIPAL FINANCES — 1921

Hon. Henry F. Long, Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation, State House, Boston.

Sir: — I submit herewith the Sixteenth Annual Report on the Statistics of Municipal Finances, covering the years ending between November 30, 1921, and March 31, 1922.

The general plan of this report is the same as that of previous reports, and the data found in the several tables are comparable with those of previous years. The analysis tables presented on pages xii to xxix show comparable figures for two or more years, thereby enabling one to observe the effect of the policy adopted by the officials who are responsible for the administration of the financial affairs of the municipality.

Financial Status of the Municipalities.

Excess or Deficiency of Revenue.

The tables presented on pages xii to xv are of value to the reader who has but little time to give to the study of the financial statistics of a given city or town. It must be borne in mind, however, that the figures given represent cash transactions only. Where a small deficit of revenue is shown, it may possibly be due to the fact that appropriations have been made from surplus in the treasury, or possibly to the failure to collect revenue assessed for that year; but by considering a series of years, as is shown in these tables, it is possible to determine whether the policy is to provide in the tax levy for the payment of all current expenses and certain annually recurring costs which are of more or less permanent character, and which we term outlays.

Current charges against revenue include all expenditures for maintenance of the several departments, for interest, for maturing debt (exclusive of debt paid from sinking funds), and for sinking fund requirements.

The aggregate revenue for current charges, classified according to source, and the aggregate current charges against revenue, classified according to purpose or function, with the percentage which each bears to the total, for the years 1920 and 1921, are shown in the following tables:

The revenue for current charges for the year 1921 for all municipalities exceeded the current charges against revenue by $3,781,817, or 2.08 per cent. This would seem to indicate that our municipalities are contributing from direct taxation for permanent improvements, at least to a certain extent. However, if the debt burden is to be relieved, the revenue for current charges must show an even larger increase. Many so-called outlays, which are annually recurring, ought to be paid from the revenue of the year in which they are incurred, and not financed by the incurrence of debt.

The revenue for current charges increased in 1921 over 1920, $13,170,488, or 7.64 per cent, and the current charges against revenue for the same period increased $12,907,054, or 7.64 per cent.

The Debt Burden.

The net funded or fixed debt of all municipalities at the close of the year 1921 was $201,741,807, an increase over the year 1920 of $10,815,970, or 5.67 per cent, this increase in percentage being four times that shown for the preceding year. The increase in assessed valuation of taxable property was $192,559,430, or 3.60 per cent, which is less than two-thirds the percentage of increase in indebtedness for that year.

On pages xxiii to xxix tables are presented showing the net debt January 1, 1923, and the ratio of net debt to assessed valuation for the cities, the towns over 5,000 population, and the towns under 5,000 population. The total net debt on January 1, 1923, for all municipalities was $213,930,490, an increase of $11,673,801, or 5.77 per cent, over that reported for the financial year 1921.

The aggregate general debt January 1, 1923, for all municipalities was $157,226,996, of which $59,475,526, or 37.83 per cent, is debt reckoned as outside the debt limit, practically all of which has been issued under authority of special legislation.

The ratio of net debt to assessed valuation on January 1, 1923, was 3.74 per cent, or a slight increase over the year covered by this report; but with the exception of 1920 and 1921 is the lowest ratio reported since 1910.

In 1922 a special commission was appointed to make a study of municipal expenditures and taxation, and a report was made to the Legislature of 1923. This commission, after consideration, reported against increasing the present debt limit, but recommended a more careful scrutiny of petitions for special borrowing presented to the Legislature.

The "pay-as-you-go" policy was very strongly recommended and as a step in that direction, the committee recommended and the Legislature has since enacted a statute (Chapter 338, Acts of 1923) which provides that, before a loan can be authorized for any of the first fourteen items mentioned in Section 7, Chapter 44, General Laws, there must be provided from revenue, or from available funds, a sum equal to twenty-five cents on each thousand dollars of the assessed valuation of the preceding year. This will automatically provide a small contribution from revenue towards permanent improvements, and if the results of this act are in any way similar to those of the act of 1913, which contained a similar provision relative to borrowing for departmental equipment, I feel sure that not only will the statutory requirements of a contribution of twenty-five cents on each thousand dollars of assessed valuation be complied with, but in a very large number of cases the entire appropriation will be raised in the tax levy and a saving in interest charges made.

The Certification of Town and District Notes.

There has been a material increase in the work of this branch of the Division, as many of the towns are now issuing their serial loans in the form of notes instead of bonds as formerly; furthermore, in the majority of the issues of the past year, coupons have been provided, so that these notes are in every particular comparable with bonds and are, I believe, less expensive to issue, especially where only a small amount is being borrowed.

The office debt records have been not only kept up to date, but have been materially improved, and it is now possible to determine the borrowing capacity of any city or town, as well as to give the detail of debt authorized and issued and to state whether such debt is under the authority of general law or of special acts of the Legislature. This information, while required for use in the certification of notes, is also utilized by city and town officials, investors in municipal securities, and by the taxpayers. The committees of the Legislature also utilize this information in connection with bills before them for consideration where the finances of a city or town are involved.

The following table shows the number of notes certified and the amount of the loans represented by them since the original act went into effect January 1, 1911:

The Auditing of Municipal Accounts and the Installation of Accounting Systems.

The policy in Massachusetts has been to allow our municipalities absolute freedom in their action regarding the adoption of the standard accounting system, as provided by Sections 35 or 36, Chapter 44, General Laws. Chapter 516, Acts of 1922, however, required cities and towns, using official ballots, which had not had a system of accounts installed under the provisions of Chapter 44, to place upon the ballot the question: "Shall the (city) or (town) petition for the installation of an accounting system by the Commonwealth"; and towns not having official ballots were required to print on the warrant at a town meeting to be held not later than the annual town meeting in 1923 an article to see if the town would petition the Commonwealth for the installation of an accounting system under the provisions of Chapter 44 of the General Laws. While this act required the question to be placed before the voters by referendum, there was nothing further which could be considered compulsory. As a result of this referendum, 90 cities and towns voted to petition for the installation of the system.

Since the publication of the last annual report a system of accounts has been installed in eleven cities and towns, some of the work being done in accordance with petitions received under Chapter 44, General Laws, and some under Chapter 516, Acts of 1922. The total number of cities, towns, and districts in which accounting systems have been installed is 122, and the system is yet to be installed in 82 cities and towns voting to petition for it under the referendum provided in Chapter 516,

Acts of 1922. While this work has not progressed as fast as it should, the very nature of it demands a technical knowledge and long training in this particular branch of accounting, which necessarily takes time for the organization of a proper force of examiners; and the policy of the office has been to refrain from increasing the force of examiners beyond the number which could be utilized to the greatest possible advantage.

The demand for annual audits by cities and towns is constantly increasing, and since my last annual report, 79 audits have been completed besides assistance rendered to other towns where requests for such assistance have been received. We find that, where an occasional audit has been made, it is comparatively a simple matter to audit the accounts, but in other cases where a complete examination has not been made for many years and, owing to a lack of accounting control, there is little for guidance, it frequently happens that it is necessary to go back five or six years before a satisfactory statement can be made regarding the financial condition of a municipality.

The spirit of co-operation existing between the officials of our municipalities and the department was never better, and in all our work we have found the officials ready to assist us in every way. The desire on their part to have a proper set of accounts and a check on them, as well as to comply with the statutes affecting municipalities, is found in every place which we have had occasion to visit.

Conclusion.

The financial records of the counties, cities, towns, and districts have been kept up to date and much valuable information is thus available. The increasing demand for service at public expense has greatly added to the tax levies and as a result the requests, by public officials and others interested in governmental activities, for information as to the source of revenue received and the purpose of its expenditure, as well as the amount of indebtedness which must be met in future years, have materially increased. It is a recognized fact that we must have correct information as to the costs of the various functions of government if we are to justify the tax rate necessary to maintain the activities now apparently demanded by the public.

I wish to express to you my appreciation of your confidence and support in the work of the Division; and to the entire office force for the faithful service rendered, especially to Mr. Edward H. Fenton, Chief Examiner, who has charge of the work of auditing the accounts of cities and towns and of the installation of systems of accounts, and to Miss Hannah M. Varney, who has general supervision over the clerical work, inspection of town and district notes, and the preparation of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

THEODORE N. WADDELL,
Director of Accounts.

State House, Boston, September 20, 1923.

PLAN OF THE REPORT.

The statistical presentations of this report, following the introductory matter, are arranged in three principal parts, devoted respectively to the finances of (I) the 38 cities; (II) the 75 towns having a population of 5,000 or over; and (III) the 242 towns having a population of less than 5,000. In all the tabulations, unless otherwise indicated, the cities and towns are arranged in order of population for convenience of comparison.

Part I. — Cities.

This part is subdivided as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Receipts from Revenue; (C) Payments for Maintenance and Interest; (D) Indebtedness; and (E) Cash Balances.

This division consists of a summary table (designated Table I) or general survey of all the financial transactions of the 38 cities of the Commonwealth (pp. 4–27). The several cities, with the exception of Boston, which has financial transactions of such magnitude as to warrant presentation independently of the other cities, are arranged, for purposes of comparison, according to the population of the Massachusetts Census of 1920, the receipts being shown on the left-hand page and the payments on the right, typographical considerations making it necessary to adopt an arbitrary grouping of four municipalities to a page.

Table II (pp. 30, 31) shows receipts from General and Table III (pp. 32, 33) receipts from Commercial Revenue. The former consists of taxes, licenses and permits, fines and forfeits, grants and gifts, and all other general revenue; while the latter is composed of revenue from special assessments (whether for expenses or outlays), privileges, departmental earnings, public service enterprises, cemeteries, and interest.

Table IV (pp. 34–42) is an exhibit of classified Departmental Earnings (being the detail of Column D of Table III), from which may be seen the amount of revenue received by the several municipalities from their various departments. Unclassified receipts are excluded because of their diversity. This table is self-explanatory and is suggestive as disclosing the varying degree to which different cities have discovered opportunities for revenue from this source.

Table V (p. 43) is a tabulation of interest receipts classified so as to show the amount of interest derived from money on deposit, from deferred taxes and special assessments, from public trust funds (sub-classified according to particular funds, so far as is practicable), from investment funds, and from miscellaneous sources.

Table VI (p. 44) presents a summary of revenue receipts, giving within the scope of a single table in a form convenient for comparison the receipts from all sources of revenue of the 38 cities.

It is of interest to note that of the total revenue receipts of the 38 cities of the Commonwealth for the year covered by the report, 81.1 per cent is from general revenue sources and 18.9 per cent from commercial revenue sources. The revenue receipts of the city of Boston are 79.9 per cent from general and 20.1 per cent from commercial sources.

(C) Payments for Maintenance and Interest.

The tables in this division, VII to X, inclusive (pp. 46–68), exhibit gross payments, classified in detail, on account of the maintenance cost, or what are sometimes called the "current expenses" of the various departments or kinds of municipal services. Interest payments are similarly but separately shown, not only because it is desirable to exhibit this item of expense independently, but because interest is properly a capital rather than a departmental charge.

It would be most interesting and significant, too, if we could calculate the net cost of the several municipal services so as to show the actual burden of each upon the taxpayer, and it might be supposed that such a figure could be obtained simply by deducting the earnings of a department from the amount necessary to maintain it; but there is as yet on the part of accounting authorities no clear or general understanding as to what receipts should be treated as departmental earnings, thereby constituting a proper offset to expense, and what, on the other hand, being in the nature of an assessment upon the taxpayer rather than a charge upon the citizen, cannot be legitimately deducted from a gross cost figure in order to obtain net cost of maintenance.

In comparing certain departmental expenses, large differences will occasionally be noted for the same class of service, the reason for which is not sufficiently apparent to warrant our attempting to assign it without more or less exhaustive inquiry. Meanwhile the differences, even for a single year, which may be noted in these comparative tables for cities of approximately the same size should stimulate local discussion for the purpose of ascertaining whether a satisfactory explanation can be found.

From the interest table (p. 68) we note that the total interest burden of the 38 cities for the year covered by the report was $13,930,613.03, of which $6,837,453.88, or 49.1 per cent, was interest on the general debt; $2,079,184.45, or 14.9 per cent, was interest on revenue and other temporary loans; and the remaining 36 per cent of the total interest payments was for debt on account of trust funds used, public service enterprise and cemetery loans, metropolitan assessments for sewer, park, and water purposes, state assessments on account of grade crossing abolition, and miscellaneous debt not specified. It is of interest to note that the total assessment on the city of Boston for interest on metropolitan debts was $1,701,582.72, or 26.2 per cent of the total interest burden of the city (see also payments to the state sinking and loan funds on page 73). Over 53 per cent of Somerville's total interest burden is on account of metropolitan assessments.

Table XI (p. 70) shows the outstanding indebtedness classified by the character of the obligation; Table XII (p. 71), the relation of indebtedness to valuation, the valuation figures as reported to the Tax Commissioner being used; Table XIII (p. 72), the debt transactions for 1921, classified according to the character of the obligation; Table XIV (p. 73) shows separately the payments to the state sinking and loan funds; and Table XV (p. 74) shows the method of meeting debt requirements from taxation.

A tabulation which gives figures for the funded or fixed debt and the net debt only of a municipality does not, however, tell the whole story of the debt burden. Revenue loans, it is true, are not included in reckoning the limit of indebtedness under the law; but though they are temporary transactions with uncollected taxes presumably as an offsetting asset, they constitute in fact a permanent burden, since they are as a class annually recurrent. Loans in anticipation of bond issues, although of a temporary character, are in reality fixed debt (having no assets as an offset) and in Table XII are included in the total of funded or fixed debt and reckoned in determining the net debt. Table XI (p. 70) has therefore been prepared for the purpose of showing the aggregate outstanding indebtedness, including not only the funded or fixed debt, but also temporary debt and warrants or orders unpaid.

The net funded or fixed debt is found by deducting from the total funded or fixed debt the amount which has been set aside in sinking funds to pay the debt when due. Funded or fixed debt does not include revenue loans or outstanding warrants or orders, because these debts are considered temporary and it is assumed that such obligations are offset by theoretically "quick" assets. Thus, revenue loans are offset by uncollected taxes, and warrants or orders by cash on hand.

The table of debt transactions (p. 72) is of interest as showing the amount of debt incurred during the fiscal year 1921 for the several purposes specified, and the amount of debt cancelled during the year, excepting payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings, metropolitan assessments for sewer, park, and water purposes, and payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. These payments represent the cancellation of a portion of the city's debt incurred by the State on its account, and for this reason are excluded.

Included in the term "General Loans" in the table of debt transactions are not only loans issued for general purposes, but likewise all loans whether specified as for school, fire, or police, etc., purposes, since these could not be shown separately by figures which would be comparable.

Payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings and metropolitan sewer, park, and water assessments are shown separately in Table XIV (p. 73). The aggregate amount thus paid for the 38 cities in 1921 was $701,521.66, of which Boston paid $418,424.58, or 59.6 per cent.

Table XV (p. 74) is of interest as showing the relative use by the 38 cities of Massachusetts of the two methods of meeting their debt obligations. The payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings and metropolitan assessments are included in this table in order to show the annual debt charges against revenue, but they are assessments and not properly charged as a serial or municipal sinking fund payment.

Table XVI (p. 76) shows the amount of cash on hand held by the treasurer and departments at the beginning and close of the fiscal year 1921.

PART II. — TOWNS OVER 5,000 POPULATION.

The subdivisions of this part are as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Indebtedness; (C) Cash Balances.

The tables in Division A, Summary of Financial Transactions (pp. 80–121), are similar in form and detail to those given for the cities in Part I, the towns being arranged according to population, with the exception of Brookline, the largest town, which is presented separately as its transactions are scarcely comparable with those of any other town. The tables in the division devoted to Indebtedness (II, III, IV, V, and VI, on pp. 124–131, inclusive) are similar to those given for the cities, and the comments made in the latter connection are likewise applicable to the towns. The statements of Cash Balances (pp. 134, 135) for the towns are also self-explanatory.

PART III. — TOWNS UNDER 5,000 POPULATION.

The subdivisions of this part are as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Indebtedness; (C) Cash Balances. They are presented on the same plan as the towns of over 5,000 population, which are shown in Part II.

TABLE XII. — Relation of Indebtedness to Valuation — 1921.

NOTE. — The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1921, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1921, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in this table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table XI, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans, other temporary loans, (such as is found in Northampton, see foot-note on Table XI), and warrants or orders is deducted from the total debt shown in Table XI, the result will be the funded or fixed debt shown in Table XII.

NOTE. — The amount of debt as shown in the following table does not include the sinking and loan fund payments to the State on account of grade crossings and Metropolitan assessments, or payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. For this reason the total amount of cancelled debt as here shown differs from that shown in Table I, Division A, pages 4 to 27, under the section "Municipal Indebtedness."

TABLE III. — Relation of Indebtedness to Valuation — 1921.

NOTE. — The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1921, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1921, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in this table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table II, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans, other temporary loans (such as is found in Norwood, see foot-note on page 125), and warrants or orders are deducted from the total debt shown in Table II, the result will give the funded or fixed debt shown in Table III.

NOTE. — The amount of debt as shown in the following table does not include the sinking and loan fund payments to the State on account of grade crossings and Metropolitan assessments, or payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. For this reason the total amount of cancelled debt as here shown differs from that shown in Table I, Division A, pages 80 to 121 under the section "Municipal Indebtedness."

TABLE III. — Relation of Indebtedness to Valuation — 1921.

NOTE. — The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1921, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1921, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock, as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in this table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table II, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans, other temporary loans such as those found in Harvard and Sandwich (see foot-notes on Table II), and warrants or orders is deducted from the total debt shown in Table II, the result will give the funded or fixed debt shown in Table III.

There are 77 towns which showed no funded or fixed debt.

NOTE. — The amount of debt as shown in the following table does not include the sinking and loan fund payments to the State on account of grade crossings and Metropolitan assessments, or payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. For this reason the amount of cancelled debt as here shown differs from that shown in Table I, Division A, pages 140 to 263, under the section "Municipal Indebtedness."

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Department of Corporations and Taxation,
State House, Boston, July 1, 1924.

As Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation I submit herewith the Seventeenth Annual Report on the Statistics of Municipal Finances of the cities and towns of the Commonwealth for the financial year 1922. This report was prepared under the immediate direction of Mr. Theodore N. Waddell, Director of Accounts in the Department, and contains data relative to the finances of the municipalities of the Commonwealth, together with tabulations compiled from the returns made by the several city and town officials.

HENRY F. LONG,
Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

REPORT ON THE STATISTICS OF MUNICIPAL FINANCES — 1922

Hon. Henry F. Long, Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation, State House, Boston.

Sir: — I submit herewith the Seventeenth Annual Report on the Statistics of Municipal Finances, covering the years ending between November 30, 1922, and March 31, 1923.

The general plan of this report is the same as that of previous reports, and the data found in the several tables are comparable with those of previous years. The analysis tables found on pages xii to xxix present, in concise form, comparable figures for two or more years from which may be observed the effect upon the municipal finances of the policy adopted by the officials responsible for the administration of municipal affairs. The character and amount of service rendered, in comparison with the money spent, is the real test of efficiency in government. At the present time, the demand for service at public expense is so uniform that we are able to determine, from data at hand, the actual costs of the various activities and to draw more accurate and intelligent conclusions as to the efficiency of the city and town officials; and to-day it is possible, by means of present-day transportation, for a large percentage of our citizens to obtain first-hand knowledge of the various public improvements, health and recreation centres, and police and fire protection furnished to the citizens of our Commonwealth.

Financial Status of the Municipalities.

Excess or Deficiency of Revenue.

The tables presented on pages xii to xv show the amount of revenue actually received and the amount expended for general maintenance and operation charges, together with the payments for interest and debt. The returns made to this office represent cash transactions only. Consideration of the figures for a single year may lead to false conclusions, but grouping together the transactions of a series of years enables one to more accurately determine the financial policy of the officials responsible for the management of the municipalities. All annually recurring costs should be reflected in the tax rate; but while some of these costs are in the nature of permanent improvements and are included as outlays in our classification, the extent of such improvements, which are met from direct taxation, is shown in this table.

Legislation passed in 1923 reduced the amounts which may be borrowed by requiring that twenty-five cents on each thousand dollars of the assessed valuation of the preceding year shall be raised in the levy of the year in which the debt is incurred; this will automatically be reflected in this table in future reports by showing an increased proportion of excess revenue. It is encouraging to note, however, that while the report for the year 1921 showed that 21 of the 38 cities had a deficit of revenue, the table in this report shows but four of the 38 cities with a deficit of revenue. Of the 75 towns of over 5,000 population, 18 showed a deficit of revenue for the year 1921, but for the year 1922 only five of such towns showed a revenue deficit.

The aggregate revenue for current charges for all municipalities, classified according to source, and the aggregate charges against revenue, classified according to purpose or function, with the percentage each class bears to the total, for the years 1921 and 1922 are shown in the following tables:

For the year 1922, it will be seen that 80.70 per cent of the revenue is received from direct taxation, 10.31 per cent from public service enterprises, while 8.99 per cent is from various other sources. The current charges against revenue show that 81 per cent was for maintenance and operation of the departments of government and 19 per cent for interest and debt. Of the total amount expended for maintenance and operation, the largest amount was expended for schools, namely 28.07 per cent, while 13.48 per cent was expended for protection of persons and property. The expenditure for highways was 9.42 per cent; health and sanitation, 7.04 per cent; charities, 5.89 per cent; public service enterprises, 5.73 per cent; general government, 4.21 per cent; while the balance, 7.30 per cent, was expended for various other activities.

Revenue for current charges for the year 1922 for all municipalities exceeded the current charges against revenue by $10,521,745, or 5.55 per cent. In 1922, revenue for current charges increased $14,427,771, or 7.77 per cent, while current charges against revenue for the same period increased $7,687,843, or 4.23 per cent.

The Debt Burden.

The net funded or fixed debt of all municipalities at the close of the financial year 1922 was $214,973,025, an increase over the year 1921 of $13,231,218, or 6.56 per cent. The increase in assessed valuation of taxable property was $168,731,104, or 3.04 per cent, which is less than one-half of the increase in indebtedness for that year.

On pages xxiii to xxix tables are presented showing the net debt January 1, 1924, and the ratio of net debt to assessed valuation for the cities, the towns over 5,000 population, and the towns under 5,000 population. The total net debt on January 1, 1924, for all municipalities was $225,167,642, an increase of $10,194,617, or 4.74 per cent, over that reported for the financial year 1922. The financial year of the cities does not correspond in all cases with the calendar year, since some cities close their year on November 30, and others close on dates as late as March 31 following. This difference between the financial year and the calendar year accounts for any variation that may be observed in the amount of indebtedness reported as of January 1, 1924, and the amount reported at the close of the financial year upon which this report is based.

The aggregate general debt January 1, 1924, for all municipalities was $167,196,462, of which $63,866,560, or 38.20 per cent, is debt reckoned as outside the limit of indebtedness, practically all of which has been issued under authority of special legislation.

The ratio of net debt to assessed valuation on January 1, 1924, was 3.76 per cent, this being the same proportion of debt to valuation as is shown for the financial year 1922. Referring to the table on page xxii we find that the highest percentage of debt to assessed valuation was for the year 1910, namely, 4.31 per cent. Since that year a constant decrease is noted, the lowest ratio being shown for the year 1920. In 1917, when intangible personal property was eliminated from local assessors' valuations, there was an apparent increase in the percentage of indebtedness; however, as the total net indebtedness at the close of that year was less than that of the preceding year, the increased ratio was due wholly to the decrease in amount of valuations caused by the elimination of certain properties from the assessors' figures.

During the World War, the construction of public buildings and other permanent public improvements was postponed. Since the close of the war, a normal amount of new construction has been carried on, and also many of the postponed improvements are being made, which accounts for the increased indebtedness. The fact that the revenue receipts exceeded the current charges against revenue shows definitely that at least a portion of the so-called permanent improvements are being met from direct taxation and that the proceeds of loans are being used for capital accounts or outlays. The demand for new school buildings and for the construction of roads of a more permanent character will necessitate a continued large expenditure of public funds for these particular accounts. The general policy adopted of paying a considerable portion of the costs from direct taxation and of shortening the time of loans, if issued, while increasing the tax rate temporarily, will ultimately insure a more uniform rate of taxation and at the same time save the taxpayer a considerable amount in interest charges.

The general laws relating to the incurrence of debt by municipalities were not changed during the 1924 session of the General Court, but Governor Cox recommended that special acts be so drafted as to require an initial contribution to be made from taxation; also that the period of loans be shortened. In accordance with this recommendation, acts which were approved authorizing loans outside the debt limit required that a sum equal to not less than 10 per cent of the authorized loan should be raised by taxation; and if the purpose of the loan was one that, under the general law, might run for a period of 20 years, the special authority granted reduced the time to 15 years. If the same policy is followed in succeeding years, it will tend to make the municipalities more cautious in authorizing contemplated improvements. At the present time, it appears to be an easy matter for cities and towns to vote an expenditure of money, provided it does not affect the tax rate of the current year.

The Certification of Town and District Notes.

The records of outstanding indebtedness and of special legislative authority for the incurrence of debt by the several municipalities have been kept up to date and serve as an accurate check in determining the borrowing capacity in connection with the certification of town notes. Information from these records is constantly sought by banks, brokers, and investors in municipal securities. Chapter 338 of the Acts of 1923, which requires that, before a loan may be authorized for any of the first 14 items enumerated in Section 7, Chapter 44, General Laws, provision must be made from revenue, or from available funds, for a sum equal to twenty-five cents on each thousand dollars of the assessed valuation of the preceding year, caused some confusion on account of failure to provide the necessary amount to meet the requirements of the act, but at the present time this provision of the statute is now operating satisfactorily.

[1] To July 1.

The Auditing of Municipal Accounts and the Installation of Accounting Systems.

The data on file in this office, obtained from the annual returns of the financial transactions of our several municipalities, and the information obtained from returns made relative to indebtedness, are invaluable in connection with the work of auditing municipal accounts and installing accounting systems. Such information forms the basis of advance knowledge of the conditions existing in our cities and towns.

The purpose of the audits is to disclose possible errors, and to bring to light practices and methods which have been followed. However, the question of clerical errors or slight discrepancies is not so important as it is for us to make recommendations which will insure the adoption by the municipality of the best business policies. It is our purpose, therefore, in our reports, to focus attention on the methods in vogue and practices followed with suggestions for changes.

Accounting methods, in general, have not kept pace with the increased activities in our municipalities; however, it is necessary for administrative officers to have complete information with respect to the financial condition of their municipality so that the necessary public service may be rendered without fixing an unreasonable burden upon the taxpayer.

The reports of audits made have been received generally with universal approval, and suggested changes, both in methods of financing and accounting procedure, have been adopted. Accounting systems have been installed in 136 cities and towns, a gain of 14 in the past 10 months. During this period, audits have been made in 61 other cities and towns, besides additional service rendered to those cities and towns where accounting systems had been previously installed.

Conclusion.

The increased interest in the conduct of municipal affairs, brought about in part, at least, by the high tax rates, has greatly increased the demand for information relative to the costs of governmental activities, and particularly for comparable figures between cities and towns of like population. The promptness in filing the annual returns of the financial statistics by many of the city and town officials and the accuracy of these returns have made possible the preparation and tabulation at an expense considerably less than was the case when the work was first undertaken. There are a few municipalities, however, that fail to appreciate the necessity of making the annual returns which are required by statute, and while we try to assist in every way possible, yet it seems unreasonable to expect these returns to be made in this office from printed city and town reports. The reports of audits too frequently show that municipalities in which there is a lack of appreciation of the necessity of carrying out the full intent of the statutes affecting the municipality are sometimes found to be negligent in recording and reporting the financial transactions, and consequently the reports of the audits made are not complimentary to the municipality. The magnitude of the financial transactions and the variety of municipal activities necessitate greater detail in accounting if the taxpayer is to be advised intelligently as to how the tax money is spent. The work of the division in all its phases requires a general knowledge of municipal activities, the statutes affecting them, and a natural adaptability for handling details.

I wish to express to those who have so conscientiously contributed their best efforts to carry out successfully the special work in which we are engaged, my appreciation of their efforts, and especially to Mr. Edward H. Fenton, Deputy Director and Chief Examiner, who has charge of the work of auditing and of the installation of accounting systems, and to Miss Hannah M. Varney, in charge of the clerical work, the preparation of this report, and the inspection of town and district notes.

Respectfully submitted,

THEODORE N. WADDELL,
Director of Accounts.

State House, Boston, July 1, 1924.

PLAN OF THE REPORT.

The statistical presentations of this report, following the introductory matter, are arranged in three principal parts, devoted respectively to the finances of (I) the 38 cities; (II) the 75 towns having a population of 5,000 or over; and (III) the 242 towns having a population of less than 5,000. In all the tabulations, unless otherwise indicated, the cities and towns are arranged in order of population for convenience of comparison.

Part I. — Cities.

This part is subdivided as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Receipts from Revenue; (C) Payments for Maintenance and Interest; (D) Indebtedness; and (E) Cash Balances.

(A) Summary of Financial Transactions.

This division consists of a summary table (designated Table I) or general survey of all the financial transactions of the 38 cities of the Commonwealth (pp. 4–27). The several cities, with the exception of Boston, which has financial transactions of such magnitude as to warrant presentation independently of the other cities, are arranged, for purposes of comparison, according to the population of the Massachusetts Census of 1920, typographical considerations making it necessary to adopt an arbitrary grouping of four municipalities to a page.

(B) Receipts from Revenue.

Table II (pp. 30, 31) shows receipts from General and Table III (pp. 32, 33) receipts from Commercial Revenue. The former consists of taxes, licenses and permits, fines and forfeits, grants and gifts, and all other general revenue; while the latter is composed of revenue from special assessments (whether for expenses or outlays), privileges, departmental earnings, public service enterprises, cemeteries, and interest.

Table IV (pp. 34–42) is an exhibit of classified Departmental Earnings (being the detail of Column D of Table III), from which may be seen the amount of revenue received by the several municipalities from their various departments. Unclassified receipts are excluded because of their diversity. This table is self-explanatory and is suggestive as disclosing the varying degree to which different cities have discovered opportunities for revenue from this source.

Table V (p. 43) is a tabulation of interest receipts classified so as to show the amount of interest derived from money on deposit, from deferred taxes and special assessments, from public trust funds (sub-classified according to particular funds, so far as is practicable), from investment funds, and from miscellaneous sources.

Table VI (p. 44) presents a summary of revenue receipts, giving within the scope of a single table in a form convenient for comparison the receipts from all sources of revenue of the 38 cities.

It is of interest to note that of the total revenue receipts of the 38 cities of the Commonwealth for the year covered by the report, 80.8 per cent is from general revenue sources and 19.2 per cent from commercial revenue sources. The revenue receipts of the city of Boston are 78.9 per cent from general and 21.1 per cent from commercial sources.

(C) Payments for Maintenance and Interest.

The tables in this division, VII to X, inclusive (pp. 46–68), exhibit gross payments, classified in detail, on account of the maintenance cost, or what are sometimes called the "current expenses" of the various departments or kinds of municipal services. Interest payments are similarly but separately shown, not only because it is desirable to exhibit this item of expense independently, but because interest is properly a capital rather than a departmental charge.

It would be most interesting and significant, too, if we could calculate the net cost of the several municipal services so as to show the actual burden of each upon the taxpayer, and it might be supposed that such a figure could be obtained simply by deducting the earnings of a department from the amount necessary to maintain it; but there is as yet on the part of accounting authorities no clear or general understanding as to what receipts should be treated as departmental earnings, thereby constituting a proper offset to expense, and what, on the other hand, being in the nature of an assessment upon the taxpayer rather than a charge upon the citizen, cannot be legitimately deducted from a gross cost figure in order to obtain net cost of maintenance.

In comparing certain departmental expenses, large differences will occasionally be noted for the same class of service, the reason for which is not sufficiently apparent to warrant our attempting to assign it without more or less exhaustive inquiry. Meanwhile the differences, even for a single year, which may be noted in these comparative tables for cities of approximately the same size should stimulate local discussion for the purpose of ascertaining whether a satisfactory explanation can be found.

From the interest table (p. 68) we note that the total interest burden of the 38 cities for the year covered by the report was $13,928,410.70, of which $7,229,643.00, or 51.9 per cent, was interest on the general debt; $1,621,431.82, or 11.6 per cent, was interest on revenue and other temporary loans; and the remaining 36.5 per cent of the total interest payments was for debt on account of trust funds used, public service enterprise and cemetery loans, metropolitan assessments for sewer, park, and water purposes, state assessments on account of grade crossing abolition, and miscellaneous debt not specified. It is of interest to note that the total assessment on the city of Boston for interest on metropolitan debts was $1,663,350.86, or 25.6 per cent of the total interest burden of the city (see also payments to the state sinking and loan funds on page 73). Over 59 per cent of Somerville's total interest burden is on account of metropolitan assessments.

A tabulation which gives figures for the funded or fixed debt and the net debt only of a municipality does not, however, tell the whole story of the debt burden. Revenue loans, it is true, are not included in reckoning the limit of indebtedness under the law; but though they are temporary transactions with uncollected taxes presumably as an offsetting asset, they constitute in fact a permanent burden, since they are as a class annually recurrent. Loans in anticipation of bond issues, although of a temporary character, are in reality fixed debt (having no assets as an offset) and in Table XII are included in the total of funded or fixed debt and reckoned in determining the net debt. Table XI (p. 70) has therefore been prepared for the purpose of showing the aggregate outstanding indebtedness, including not only the funded or fixed debt, but also temporary debt and warrants or orders unpaid.

The net funded or fixed debt is found by deducting from the total funded or fixed debt the amount which has been set aside in sinking funds to pay the debt when due. Funded or fixed debt does not include revenue loans or outstanding warrants or orders, because these debts are considered temporary, and it is assumed that such obligations are offset by theoretically "quick" assets. Thus, revenue loans are offset by uncollected taxes, and warrants or orders by cash on hand.

The table of debt transactions (p. 72) is of interest as showing the amount of debt incurred during the fiscal year 1922 for the several purposes specified, and the amount of debt cancelled during the year, excepting payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings, metropolitan assessments for sewer, park, and water purposes, and payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. These payments represent the cancellation of a portion of the city's debt incurred by the State on its account, and for this reason are excluded.

Included in the term "General Loans" in the table of debt transactions are not only loans issued for general purposes, but likewise all loans whether specified as for school, fire, or police, etc., purposes, since these could not be shown separately by figures which would be comparable.

Payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings and metropolitan sewer, park, and water assessments are shown separately in Table XIV (p. 73). The aggregate amount thus paid for the 38 cities in 1922 was $672,655.61, of which Boston paid $389,326.34, or 57.9 per cent.

Table XV (p. 74) is of interest as showing the relative use by the 38 cities of Massachusetts of the two methods of meeting their debt obligations. The payments to the state sinking and loan funds on account of grade crossings and metropolitan assessments are included in this table in order to show the annual debt charges against revenue, but they are assessments and not properly charged as a serial or municipal sinking fund payment.

PART II. — TOWNS OVER 5,000 POPULATION.

The subdivisions of this part are as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Indebtedness; (C) Cash Balances.

The tables in Division A, Summary of Financial Transactions (pp. 80–121), are similar in form and detail to those given for the cities in Part I, the towns being arranged according to population, with the exception of Brookline, the largest town, which is presented separately as its transactions are scarcely comparable with those of any other town. The tables in the division devoted to Indebtedness (II, III, IV, V, and VI, on pp. 124–131, inclusive) are similar to those given for the cities, and the comments made in the latter connection are likewise applicable to the towns. The statements of Cash Balances (pp. 134, 135) for the towns are also self-explanatory.

PART III. — TOWNS UNDER 5,000 POPULATION.

The subdivisions of this part are as follows: — (A) Summary of Financial Transactions; (B) Indebtedness; (C) Cash Balances. They are presented on the same plan as the towns of over 5,000 population, which are shown in Part II.

NOTE. — The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1922, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1922, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in this table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table XI, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans, other temporary loans, (such as are found in Haverhill and Northampton, see foot-notes on Table XI), and warrants or orders is deducted from the total debt shown in Table XI, the result will be the funded or fixed debt shown in Table XII.

NOTE. — The amount of debt as shown in the following table does not include the sinking and loan fund payments to the State on account of grade crossings and Metropolitan assessments, payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes, and payments made in adjustment of financial accounts (see foot-note on page 5). For this reason the total amount of cancelled debt as here shown differs from that shown in Table I, Division A, pages 4 to 27, under the section "Municipal Indebtedness."

NOTE. — The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1922, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1922, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in this table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table II, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans, other temporary loans (such as is found in Methuen, see foot-note on page 125), and warrants or orders is deducted from the total debt shown in Table II, the result will give the funded or fixed debt shown in Table III.

NOTE. — The amount of debt as shown in the following table does not include the sinking and loan fund payments to the State on account of grade crossings and Metropolitan assessments, or payments to counties on account of debt incurred for bridge purposes. For this reason the total amount of cancelled debt as here shown differs from that shown in Table I, Division A, pages 80 to 121, under the section " Municipal Indebtedness."

Table III. — Relation of Indebtedness to Valuation — 1922.

Note. — The valuation given in this table is the assessors' valuation of real and personal property as of April 1, 1922, together with the supplemental assessment of December, 1922, exclusive of the non-resident bank stock, as reported to the Tax Commissioner.

The total debt shown in this table is the funded or fixed debt. This amount differs from the total debt shown in Table II, which includes funded or fixed debt and also temporary debt. If the amount of revenue loans, other temporary loans such as those found in Wilmington, Berlin, and Eastham (see foot-notes on Table II), and warrants or orders is deducted from the total debt shown in Table II, the result will give the funded or fixed debt shown in Table III.

There are 64 towns which showed no funded or fixed debt.

As Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation I submit herewith the Eighteenth Annual Report on the Statistics of Municipal Finances of the cities and towns of the Commonwealth for the financial year 1923. This report was prepared under the immediate direction of Mr. Theodore N. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

REPORT ON THE STATISTICS OF MUNICIPAL FINANCES — 1923

Hon. Henry F. Long, Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation, State House, Boston.

Sir: — I submit herewith the Eighteenth Annual Report on the Statistics of Municipal Finances, covering the years ending between November 30, 1923, and March 31, 1924.

The general plan of the report is the same as that of previous reports, and the data found in the several tables are comparable with those of previous years. The analysis tables found on pages xii to xxix should be of particular interest, for in these general tables comparisons are found for two or more years which show certain changes either in spreading the burden of taxation or in shifting the costs of the various municipal activities. Data such as are found in this report, if rightly used, will be of value to all who are interested in good government. While it is not contended that the mere statement of the amount of income received and the amount paid out necessarily proves efficient or inefficient government, it can be said that, without facts such as are presented, there can be no basis of comparison between municipalities, nor any real foundation for conclusions as to service rendered and what such service costs.

Much of the inefficiency of government today is due to the lack of municipal planning. We do, of course, have many plans presented for the construction or acquiring of civic centers, recreation buildings, parks, boulevards, etc., which call for the expenditure of vast sums of money all of which are very desirable, and, in fact, many of these expenditures are necessary; but if we are to enjoy them a little financial planning must be done, for the urgent need of today is to have a reduction in the tax burden and a check in the increase of debt.

The annual reports on the Statistics of Municipal Finances have been especially valuable in pointing out facts relative to the finances of our various municipalities and have provided a practical demonstration of the need of corrective legislation. Such legislation is invaluable to this particular department in carrying out the activities required by statute, especially the certification of town notes, the auditing of accounts, and the installation of accounting systems.

Since the publication of the first report, many changes have taken place in financing our municipal activities and also in the method of recording the financial transactions. Laws have been enacted from time to time which have established principles for guiding us in financing our municipal needs so that the burden of taxation shall, at least, be held within bounds, and, as a result, our cities and towns are now in a position to meet the extraordinary demands which followed the World War.

Financial Status of the Municipalities.

Excess or Deficiency of Revenue.

The tables presented on pages xii to xv show the amount of revenue actually received and the amount expended for general maintenance and operating charges, together with the payments for interest and debt. We recognize the fact that figures prepared on the accrual basis are far better than those prepared on a cash basis, particularly, if only a single year is shown; however, at the present time, the only practical method is to show the transactions on a cash basis, and by showing a series of years, the disadvantage of the cash basis over the accrual basis is practically eliminated. In judging the effect of the financial policy adopted by any one of the municipalities of the Commonwealth, it is necessary to consider a series of years, and, if this is done, correct conclusions may be drawn.

Before a loan may be authorized for permanent improvements, the statutes require a small contribution to be made from revenue. This will be automatically reflected in this table, and future reports should show an excess of revenue for current charges over the current charges against revenue. The reports show that for the cities the number showing a deficit of revenue was reduced from 21 in 1921 to 4 in 1922, and for the 39 cities covered by this report 3 show a deficit of revenue. Gardner became a city, January 1, 1923, thus adding one more city to the total number in the Commonwealth. Of the towns over 5,000 population, the number showing a deficit of revenue in 1921 was 18, which decreased to 4 in 1922, and to 2 in 1923.

The aggregate revenue for current charges for all municipalities, classified according to source, and the aggregate charges against revenue classified according to purpose or function, with the percentage each class bears to the total, for the years 1922 and 1923, are shown in the following tables:

The above tables show the receipts from the various sources of revenue to be relatively in the same proportion as in the preceding year. The current charges against revenue show that a slightly larger amount was expended for general maintenance and a proportionately smaller amount for interest and debt.

Of the total charges against revenue for the year 1923, the largest amount was expended for the support of schools, namely, 28.62 per cent; the amount expended for protection of persons and property was 13.37 per cent; and the amount expended for highways was 10.22 per cent. Considering the total maintenance and operation charges, we find that the amount expended for schools was 34.80 per cent; for protection of persons and property, 16.26 per cent; and for highways, 12.42 per cent.

Comparing the percentages of total charges against revenue for the years 1922 and 1923, it will be noted that general government, or administrative expense, shows a decrease from 4.21 to 4.13 per cent; protection of persons and property shows a decrease from 13.48 to 13.37 per cent; health and sanitation an increase from 7.04 to 7.19 per cent; highways an increase from 9.42 to 10.22 per cent; charities a decrease from 5.89 to 5.58 per cent; schools an increase from 28.07 to 28.62 per cent; recreation an increase from 2.21 to 2.45 per cent; pensions an increase from 0.78 to 0.85 per cent; and public service enterprises an increase from 5.73 to 6.19 per cent. The other functions, which compose but a small proportion, show a general decrease over the preceding year.

Revenue for current charges for the year 1923 for all municipalities exceeded the current charges against revenue by $15,124,146, or 7.61 per cent. Comparing the years 1922 and 1923, we find that revenue for current charges increased $13,893,477, or 6.95 per cent, while current charges against revenue for the same period increased $9,291,076, or 4.90 per cent.
